IRON-CLAD STEAMERS.

NAVY DEPARTMENT
Washington February 20 1862

THE Navy Department will until the 24th of March next, receive propositions for the complete construction and equipment of iron-clad vessels for river harbor and coast defence

These vessels with the exception of those for the Mississippi river and its tributaries will be propelled by screws, those for the Mississippi river and tributaries may be propelled by paddle wheels. The hulls will be either wholly of iron (which would be preferred) or of iron and wood combined as the projectors may consider most suitable for the object proposed but their sides and decks must be protected with an iron armament sufficient to resist the heaviest shot and shells

The vessels for the Mississippi river and its tributaries are not to draw more than six feet water when fully equipped and armed at which draft they are to be able to maintain a permanent speed of nine knots per hour in still water, and carry sufficient coal in the bunkers for six days steaming at that speed Their armament will consist of not less than six eleven inch guns

The vessels for harbor defence are not to draw more than twelve feet water when fully equipped and armed at which draft they are to be able to maintain a permanent speed of ten knots per hour in smooth water and carry sufficient coal in the bunkers for seven days steaming at that speed — The armament will consist of not less than from two to four eleven inch guns

The vessels for coast defence are not to draw more than twenty feet water when fully equipped and armed at which draft they are to be able to maintain a permanent speed of fifteen knots per hour at sea, and carry sufficient coal in the bunkers for twelve days steaming at that speed Their armament will consist of one of two fifteen or twenty inch guns

The guns of the vessels for harbor and coast defence are to train to all points of the compass without change in the vessel's position

The proposals must state the number of vessels, subject to the selection of the Department which the party proposes to furnish complete in every respect, embracing armour plating, steam machinery and equipments of all kinds ready for service or carrying only the ordnance and ordnance stores and provisions The propositions must be accompanied by descriptions, specifications drawings, and models of such character that the work could be executed from them

The place of delivery must be stated, the time within which the vessel or vessels are to be completed and also the total sum to be paid for each

It will be stipulated in the contract that one fifth the total amount will be retained by the Government until sixty days after the reception of the vessel in order to give it a trial the remaining payments being made with due regard to the proper performance and progress of the work, the contract will also embrace forfeitures for failure to perform the conditions specified

The bids must be accompanied by the guarantee required by law that, if a contract is awarded it will be promptly executed and the names of the parties who are to become the sureties to the amount of the face of the contract will also be stated

The Department will consider any other propositions that may be presented in which the draft of water above named is not exceeded

The Department will be at liberty to accept or reject any or all the propositions. 2awlw f27

THE NEWYORK TRIBUNE.

LARGE PREMIUMS

TO OUR FRIENDS

Hitherto we have never offered any one a premium for helping to extend the circulation of THE TRIBUNE We have printed the cheapest newspaper considering the outlay by which it is produced that was ever issued in any country selling it for little more than the cost of the white paper, has employed no agents to canvass for subscribers, and has allowed no commission (beyond a copy of our paper) to any of the thousands of generous friends who have annually taken care that the number of copies of our several issues circulated in their respective neighborhoods should be at least maintained and if possible increased We have been sparing even of verbal thanks to these friends but have none the less realized the fullness of our obligation for their earnest, unselfish, painstaking, persistent efforts

We propose for the present season only—in view of the dullness of the times and the fact that we are anxious to buy white paper as cheaply as we have hitherto done or can hope to do after the close of the War—to make some small acknowledgment—not so much a recompense as a slight testimonial—to those friends who shall see fit, to exert themselves to obtain subscriptions (whether original or renewals) to our Weekly and Semi Weekly editions We do not know that we could offer any thing of similar value more generally acceptable and useful than a Gold Pen of the best quality and finish We propose therefore to forward to each person who during the two months ensuing shall send us subscriptions and payments for THE TRIBUNE as follows

In Peace or War, on land or sea,
Our flag, the segis of the free,
Bright emblem of Columbia's glory!
Shall tell to coming years the story,
How, stout of heart, and strong of hand,
The patriots of our native land
Bore it, the nation's hope and life,
On tented field, 'mid fearful strife,
Still on! 'till through the sulphurous cloud
It broke in triumph, Treason's shroud!

THE POSITION OF OUR ARMIES As the Boston Journal says almost everywhere the strategic disposal of troops is now in our favor General Mitchell's seizure of Huntsville has effectually separated the main rebel armies of the East and the West, while neither can spare forces enough at present to attempt to dislodge him The rebel forces in Virginia are now compelled to mass, for their own defense, in the extreme eastern corner, of the State the farthest away from their base of supplies and reinforcements Now, if ever, the position of General Burnside becomes of vital importance, and we may rest assured that the Government perceives the fact, and has put it into his power to cut off the rebel means of retreat at Goldsboro, and to beat any rebel force which can be spared to attack him Gen Fremont, also, will soon be enabled to advance into East Tennessee, and seize the other main line of communication of the Virginia rebel army with the South When that is done, John ston's forces will have McClellan in front and McDowell and Banks on his flank, and perhaps in his rear But with this dismal prospect before them, the desperation of the rebels may be expected to increase accordingly They will rely on daring and hazardous enterprises, like that of Beauregard in the field and of the Merrimac on the water We must be prepared to see them successful in isolated instances But such a system of defense only marks the terrible efficacy of our grand advance, now from the north and shortly also from the Gulf, and no random successes achieved by it can for a moment disturb the settled confidence of the loyal community in our complete and not far distant triumph

The Whig ought to have known that we did not hesitate to endorse the President's message on emancipation, and therefore could not truly represent those opposed to emancipation in any form —Belfast Journal

Perhaps we have done injustice to the Journal upon this point We believe that paper did approve the President's proposition Our remark, however, was intended as a general one to apply to the Democratic party as now represented in Congress and with which we supposed the Journal to be in affiliation That party, as shown by its votes in Congress was and is opposed to the President's emancipation policy

The Journal says it is in favor of the abolition of slavery in the District of Columbia—by consent of the people of the District This is tantamount to opposition—for it is well known that the voters in the District are either slaveholders or ultra pro-slavery men by a large majority They would never consent to abolition Northern men who have gone to Washington within a year were not to considered as resident voters, according to the proposition made to submit the question to the people.

ARMING THE BLACKS The following item will have some interest for our people in Maine, among whom the question of employing the negroes in suppressing the rebellion has recently been agitated

"We learn from high authority that General Hunter, the new commander of the Southern department of South Carolina and Georgia, is ready and will assume the responsibility of enrolling in the federal army all loyal citizens of the invaded territory, whether white or black Springfield Republican

The New York Times also learns that Secretary Stanton will enlist regiments of negroes to garrison Stations which are sickly Is there anything very bad about this? Nothing, of course It is human and prudent But then, the agitation of the matter brought down the fury of "abolition," and some really thought that this plan to preserve the lives of our white soldiers was a proposition for a gigantic John Brown raid After the matter is well understood, everybody will wonder that it met with opposition —Rockland Democrat

While inspecting the Monitor, Capt Jeffers is reported to have said

"If I knew as much of the Merrimac from newspaper descriptions and pictorial representations and diagrams as the rebels know of the Monitor, I would go up to Norfolk an sink her before sundown."

DEMOCRATIC VICTORIES Many of those papers in this State which have been for a year past denouncing the Republicans for "keeping up a party contest in time of war", are now loudly shouting over "Democratic victories in New York and the Great West!" They have carried a few city and town elections—but it has been precisely because the Republicans have been patriotic enough not to go into an embittered partisan contest in time of war They have maintained their party organization, but made little effort at the elections.

☞ A recent attempt at St. Louis to counterfeit the United States Treasury Notes on a great scale has been discovered and defeated by the Chief of Police It is said that $100,000 worth of spurious notes had been prepared for issuing

☞ Reports from Fortress Monroe state that the third shot made by the Merrimac was from the immense gun made at the Tredegar Works and said to throw a shell of three hundred pounds weight, and that there is good reason to believe that the shell burst within the gun, and exploded the piece inside of the port. The piece of the gun and the shell were seen to sprinkle the water, and smoke ascended from the covering over the deck The explosion was supposed to have been deadly and damaging for the Merrimac withdrew

All eyes are now turned with anxious yet hopeful expectation upon the great armies facing each other at Yorktown Maine has a great stake in the terrible struggle which is apparently impending Thousands of her sons are in those serried ranks Let us hope that the angel of death may touch lightly with his wings those cherished battalions The cause of our country, however, is a glorious one in which to die

THE CAPTURED OFFICER OF THE SUMTER By a letter in the Ellsworth American, from an officer on board the United States ship Kearsage at Gibraltar March 9th, we learn that the paymaster of the pirate Sumter and the secession ex Consul at Cadiz, who were taken prisoners at Tangiers, and put on board the United States ship Ino, were transferred to the "Harvest Home Capt Dickey, of Scookton, Maine, to be brought to the United States We have not yet heard of their arrival

THE SHARPSHOOTERS BEFORE YORKTOWN The correspondent of the New York Commercial says

The sharpshooters have thus far enjoyed the honors of the siege They have burrowed themselves in rifle pits in which they sometimes remain early in the morning, and remain until sunset Their rations are sent to them and as their pits are damp a wee drap of whiskey" is included They use their telescopic rifles which they ram whole madish precision ramming the patched ball with great care, rapping gently with their mallets on hickory ramrods Then the sights have to be adjusted and then—woe to the rebel who approaches one of the guns mounted on their works en barbette When one of these sharpshooters is sure that he has dropped his man he cuts a notch on the stock of his rifle and some of them have already formidable array of death scores

GENERAL GRANT It is stated that General Grant at the commencement of the war, was in straightened circumstances in a small town in Illinois He enlisted as Captain, was afterwards made Colonel, and subsequently promoted to be Brigadier for gallantry At Donelson as well known, he was made Major General He bids fair to attain the highest point of military renown

Speaking of Gen Halleck, who has recently taken the field as commanding officer at Pittsburg, a St Louis correspondent of the Lewiston Journal says

He has hitherto made no mistake, he has met with no defeat It is said that he now intends to take the field himself St Louis will feel lonely without him No other man can fill his place in the esteem of the citizens as a military governor of the city Order reigns in Warsaw wherever he presides Our streets by night and day were never so quiet within the memory of the oldest inhabitant Those terrible bugbears of all our magistrates the Sunday beer gardens are as quiet as a cemetery The press is not so outspoken on arrangements matters as it used to be and, secessionists out line the Pilots, like Catalina and his compeers to private walls

A SOLDIER CONFIDENCE MAN We notice by the Boston papers that F H Spencer, who belongs in this city and concerning whom great exploits were told in the papers last winter has been arrested in Boston for obtaining $11 50 on false pretences He had been previously arrested on a charge of using forged papers but was acquitted He then sued officers for false imprisonment, but did not succeed in recovering any damages It appears that he had what purported to be confederate money to sell which he admitted that he obtained in New York. He pretended to be a captain in a Maryland regiment Those who know this Spencer here give him the credit of considerable talent at imposition.

We believe he had talent enough to obtain puffs for his bogus secesh money from some of the newspapers in this region

A SPY HUNG BY THE REBELS Price Lewis, a former resident of Walcottville, Conn, was hung as a spy at Richmond, a few days since. He had made several trips to the rebel camps successfully, but was caught at last and manfully paid the penalty

THE LAST TRIUMPH OF YANKEE GENIUS — The Boston Post has a notice of a Portable House the invention of a Yankee, which must be a very handy affair "In less time" says the writer, "than it takes to tell it, a tree is put into a mill and sliced up into a dwelling house, a church, a barn a railroad depot or a military hospital — These can be compactly stowed away and carried to any part of the globe, and apparently any child who has built houses of blocks, could take the pieces out of a trunk and establish a habitation at a moment's notice."

By a subsequent improvement we learn that any bachelor purchasing a house of this description, finds it ready furnished with a wife and a large family of children

The French Minister has gone to Richmond, it is said to urge the claims of French merchants to large quantities of tobacco in the hands of the rebels.

☞ A young man by the name of Snowdell of Thomaston, company B, was killed a few days since by the rebels He was sitting on a fence watching the operations of a rebel battery when a shell struck the rail close beside him He was immediately carried into camp on stretchers but expired in half an hour after reaching the hospital

EIGHTH MAINE REGIMENT Mr Editor — During a short stay at Port Royal, I called on Col J D Rust of the 8th Maine and found him and his regiment in excellent condition Lt Col Reynolds, of your city together with the officers of the 8th, at the time of my leaving March 28 th were in good spirits well fixed for and contented WM McGILVERY Searsport, April 10 —Belfast Age

☞ Capt Hinkley of Blue Hill, some of whose cattle were reported to have died of pleuro pneumonia, says the disease was more like diphtheria in the human subject Are not the diseases analogous?

The Merrimac it is supposed burst one of her guns at the last discharge on Friday The impression prevails at the Fortress that this rebel intention was to draw the Monitor from the channel between the Rip Raps and Fortress Monroe, so that the Merrimac could be more easily got to an extensive field of operations

WAS IT A DEFEAT? The question agitating the community in regard to the late battle has now come down to the one proposition "Did we defeat the enemy?" A view of all the circumstances shows the following

1st That the enemy chose their own time and place of attack

2d That they attempted a surprise, and carried it out at the beginning, by coming most unexpectedly upon our forces while many of them were preparing their breakfasts

3d That their troops outnumbered ours considerably

The result was that after fifteen hours of severe fighting they were forced to retire to their old quarters, having in killed and wounded nearly double the number of men lost on our side We are of the opinion that it was at best such a defeat as will forbid their making a similar attempt under the same circumstances.

Cincinnati Times

Some time ago there was a trial for trespass in cutting wood from a neighbor's premises without authority One of the plaintiff's witnesses was a plain old farmer, whose testimony went clearly and directly to prove the charge The defendant's counsel, a blustering man of brass, thought to weaken the force of his evidence by proving idiocy to be a trait of his family As he therefore interrogated him thus

'Mr Hodge, you have a son who is an idiot, have you not?'

'Yes, sir'

'Does he know anything?'

'Very little.'

'How much does he know?'

'Well, almost nothing; not much more than you do.'

The attorney was allowed to retire without further question.

REBEL GIBRALTAR NUMBER THREE Fort Pillow, the third of the series of rebel Gibraltars on the Mississippi is situated on the well known Chickasaw bluffs, which gradually rise from a bank to a shelving bluff a hundred and fifty feet in hight The position is not unlike that of Columbus on the land side, with the exception that the bluffs are not so steep, and the river makes a more decided curve under the bluffs

It may be considered properly as a strong position, not however very much stronger or much weaker than Columbus or Island No 10 It is vastly stronger from the land approaches, great care having been taken to guard against an attack from the land

The fortifications consist, first of a line of water bat eries extending, as at Island No 10, around the shore at the bend for a mile and a half These are mounted by about forty heavy guns, only one of which is a ten inch, similar to the Lady Polk, the rest being rifled sixty fours, and thirty twos The upper battery was at last accounts under water

On the land the rebels have constructed a line of breastworks made to run as at Donelson, so as to occupy the ridges of a series of hills—They have field and siege pieces stationed at the most salient points amounting to about thirty in all Their camps are situated in the hollows in the rear of the batteries Capacious magazines have been dug in the sides of the hills which are stored full of ammunition The engineers who have constructed these works flatter themselves they are the best and strongest ever built in the time

No doubt is entertained by Commodore Foote and Gen. Pope that the rebels can easily be shelled out, as the position is such—the principal batteries being near the water with a steep bluff above—that shells if they strike on the high bank, will roll down into the batteries and explode there with terrible effect

Our officers have full plans and entire knowledge of Pillow and do not seem to regard it as very formidable or likely long to retard their progress This problem will be solved in a few days

A SAILOR'S YARN If you never heard of 'Old Baker's yarns it would be worth your while to spend a half hour with him or his friends and hear them recited 'I am' said he to his hired boy one day, 'go into the shop and get my old compasses'

Sam went out and soon returned bringing an old pair of brass dividers

'There Sam' said old Baker 'when I was cast away we lost our compass and I stuck this pair into the binnacle and steered by them three weeks'

'Did you ever get home again' suggested Tom?

'Of course I did you fool you, but we jes like to not to for we had to be put on allowance of a pint of water a day

'I should 'a thought, you might get along well enough on that' said Tom meekly

LACONIC Give me one word said a soldier one day to Frederick the Great when presenting to him a request of a treacherous nature

If you say two answered the prince, I will have you hanged

Sign, said the soldier

The monarch surprised at his presence of mind immediately granted his request

The members of the 21st Illinois cavalry who took possession of Columbus have taken charge of the printing materials which the rebel editors left behind, and issue a neat little sheet called the Federal Scout which bears the particularly appropriate motto—

In Dixie's land we'll take our stand
And live and die in Dixie

GENTLEMEN

Having not sold for years the fashions I have adopted a fixed system and having myself proved that system to be utterly wrong for the ordering business I feel compelled to adopt the CASH SYSTEM It is better for the customer with respects to pay for his garments as the amount to be paid deals, under the credit system, is divided between the patrons and the part missed as the customer receive it by paying as much as 25 per cent less for their garments, and the latter saved from bad or tardy customers I consequently I would invite all cash paying customers to examine the Stock of Goods now on hand and see if the prices are not 25 per cent less than at any other Clothing House in the city

The Frigate Vermont Arrived at Fort Royal—Particulars of the Fort Pulaski Capture—From General Banks' Division—A Rebel Court Squelched—Concerning the Steamer Nashville—More Cannonading near Yorktown—Jeff Davis in Command—Rebel Reinforcements Still Coming—Skirmish near Warwick Court House—Repulse of the Enemy with Considerable Loss—Parson Brownlow at Philadelphia—The Position of Gen. Smith Attacked—The Enemy Handsomely Repulsed.

NEW YORK, 18th

Special despatches from Washington to the New York papers contain no real news

The Herald's despatch says that Franklin Haven Jr., of Boston has received an appointment on General McDowell's staff

Mr Stanton, the Secretary of War, has no intention of resigning He has never entertained that idea

NEW YORK, 18th

The steamer McClellan, from Port Royal the 14th has arrived

The frigate Vermont arrived at Port Royal on the 13th All safe

The steamer McClellan left Port Royal on the afternoon of the 14th The frigate Vermont was being towed into Port Royal by the steamer Star of the South as the McClellan sailed

The following is an account of the capture of Fort Pulaski On the morning of the 10th General Gilmore sent a flag of truce to the fort demanding its unconditional surrender Col Olmstead replied that he was placed there to defend not to surrender, the fort Our batteries then immediately opened fire A few rounds shot away their flag, but it was immediately replaced The firing was kept up till sunset

General Gilmore placed a battery of Government Point only 1600 yards from the fort, to breach the walls, and commenced firing from it at which gilt for that purpose, with Parrot and James guns On the morning of the 11th, two breaches were discovered in the southeast face of the fort, which at noon assumed huge proportions

About two o'clock the rebel flag was hauled down, a white flag displayed, and the fort surrendered, Colonel Olmstead stating that it was impossible to hold out longer, our rifle shots reaching the magazine, and most of the guns being disabled

The 7th Connecticut regiment took possession of the fort the night

The Union loss was one killed and one wounded The rebel loss was three badly wounded, and 385 prisoners

MARTINSBURG, Va, 16th

The proposition of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad to rebuild the Winchester and Potomac line has been accepted In the meantime supplies for General Banks' army will be forwarded to Martinsburg, thence to Woodstock via Winchester and Strasburg

The delay in the forward movement is attributed to the delay in transporting supplies over the dilapidated road between Harper's Ferry and Winchester

The new iron bridge over the Potomac at Harper's Ferry is five feet higher than the previous one and will be commenced this month

Yesterday the rebel sheriff attempted to ring the bell of the court-house, summoning the rebel judge Novenbush, to convene the Berkeley county court but a well known loyalist named Nevikes seized him, saying, 'No rebel court shall hereafter be convened in Berkeley county, only over my dead body' The rebel court did not convene

Major Walker, of the 10th Maine regiment, Provost Marshal, selected three loyal citizens, and the court was held The court and county officers were appointed and adjourned without ordering an election, awaiting the action of the constitutional State authorities

Refugees and deserters from the rebels pour in Frequent collisions occur between the two classes

FORTRESS MONROE, 17th

To day is very warm, and the tide is favorable for the appearance of the Merrimac, but nothing unusual has been seen in the direction of Sewall's Point

At Yorktown firing took place during last night and this morning, without much effect on either side Some six or eight of our men were killed, all but one of whom belonged to General Sedgwick's division

NEW YORK, 18th

By the McClellan we learn that Jacksonville was evacuated, and that our troops arrived at Hilton Head on the steamer Cosmopolitan, on the 15th

No sea papers to the 5th are received The rebel accounts of the success of the Merrimac in Hampton Roads were received at Nassau by the Nashville They state that the Merrimac can not be boarded, as she throws a large stream of boiling water also, that she is probably now at sea running down the Southern coast

The steamer Southward, from London with an assorted cargo probably to run the Sou hern blockade, arrived at Nassau on the 1st instant

The Nashville cleared on the 5th for St John, N B, under the name of Thomas L Bragg, with an assorted cargo

It is stated that the Nashville has not only changed her name, but hoisted English colors, and her assorted cargo consists of arms brought from London by the English steamer Southwick, which has been purchased by the rebels in England

BALTIMORE, 18th

The Fortress Monroe correspondent of The American states that the French steamer Gassendi is still at Norfolk

At intervals last night and this morning a heavy cannonading was heard in the direction of Yorktown

A party of deserters report Jeff Davis arrived in the rebel camp, and it is understood that he is to take command in the coming battle

They represent the enemy in great force, and works of intrenching are progressing through out the Peninsula Reinforcements are constantly arriving from Norfolk, Fredericksburg, and North Carolina, and the rebel generals declare they will make this the great battle of the war

The strongest conviction is expressed of a triumph over the federals and of driving them from the Peninsula Constant skirmishing is going on by the riflemen, and occasionally shot and shell are thrown with great rapidity

There was quite a heavy skirmish this morning beyond Warwick Court House, on James River The rebels attempted to turn our left flank, the attack being made with great force, but they were repulsed after a brisk artillery duel, with heavy loss Our loss is about a dozen killed and wounded

PHILADELPHIA, 18th

Parson Brownlow was received at Independence Hall by the city authorities this morning, and was greeted by the President of the Council with the heartiest welcome

He said he wanted to go back to East Tennessee with a corked hat, sword and a coil of rope He alluded to his wife and children now held as hostages in rebeldom and spoke of the joy and exultation which the Union army would be greeted in Tennessee. President Lincoln has invited him to the White House.

WASHINGTON, 18th

An official report from General Hunter of the capture of Fort Pulaski has been received at the War Department

The firing was continued thirty hours, when, as our troops were about to storm the fort thro' a breech, the rebel flag was struck We captured 47 guns, 7000 shot and shell, 40,000 lbs of powder, 360 prisoners, with their small arms and accoutrements, and a good supply of provisions. One of our men was killed—none wounded

WASHINGTON, 18th

The following is from Gen McClellan to-day,

HEADQUARTERS OF THE ARMY
of the Potomac, 18th

About half an hour after midnight the enemy attacked Gen Smith's position and attempted to carry his guns Smith repulsed them hand handsomely and took some prisoners

Second Despatch My position, which was yesterday occupied by Smith's was entrenched last night so that we have been able to preserve the enemy from working to-day, and kept his guns silent The same result has been accomplished at Hyan s Mills

Yorktown was shelled by our gunboats, and some of our barges to day, without effect There was a good deal of firing from the Yorktown land batteries.

WASHINGTON, 18

The following order has just been issued

In the present condition of military operations at Yorktown no passes can be given to persons not immediately connected with the troops in a military capacity

The sick and wounded will be amply provided for by the Government, and friends cannot be permitted to visit them while the above prohibition is in force

CAPTURE OF FORT WRIGHT.

Great Freshet in New York and Connecticut.

WASHINGTON, 18th

The committee appointed by Congress to inquire into the surrender of the Norfolk navy yard, submitted their report to-day—censuring the Buchanan administration for neglect of duty, resulting in the destruction of part of the Government property, and the abandonment of the remainder to the enemy

The report adds that the pres nt administration cannot be held blameless for suffering 37 days to escape after it came into power, before making a movement for the defense of the Yard the Committee also censure Com Paulding, Capt Pendergrast and Capt McCantsy and declare, in conclusion, that the nation should learn a lesson, that pusillanimity in the defense of our rights, may be as ingurious as the open assaults of our enemies

HEADQUARTERS Department of the
Shenandoah, April 17, 9 p m

To Hon E M Stanton, Secretary of War

Our troops occupy New Market to-night—There has been some artillery skirmishing but no loss on our side We have many prisoners

(Signed,) W P BANKS
Major General Commanding

MOUNT JACKSON, Va, 17th

This morning at nine o'clock, the rebels showing a feeble resistance and burning the bridges as they retreated, our advance was made by the turnpike and by a side road—Gen Shields upon the other

The cavalry were sent out last night to cut off the retreat of the rebels, but were detained, and arrived only a short time before the advance on the turnpike The Vermont cavalry dashed through Mount Jackson to prevent the burning of the bridge across the creek beyond the town They captured rebels in the act of firing the bridge A lieutenant of Ashby s, who was retreating with the colonel himself, was captured and Ashby only escaped from wearing the uniform of the Federal cavalry

The bridge across the Shenandoah was fortunately saved

Our pursuing force are in New Market tonight without resistance Major Copland and and twelve of General Banks's cavalry charged through the town in the rear of the enemy Ashby and men are outside of the town Jackson and his infantry have fallen back towards Staunton.

WOODSTOCK, 18 h

Our army probably reached New Market last night Officers who have returned hither state that when they left our advance was five miles beyond Mount Jackson The enemy attempted to make one stand on his retreat but our guns spurred them on Lieut O'Brien, of Ashby's cavalry was captured at a house on the road—The cavalry company taken yesterday was commanded by Capt Harper, who was absent His three Lieutenants were taken

Our officers believe it possible that an action will take place to day Gen. Shields was in command of his forces one gave direction for a flank movement, which caused the enemy to retreat The locomotives and cars and every destructable appliance of war not transferrable, were burned by the enemy

Very latest—10½ o'clock Last night Gen Banks had reached New Market and was in hot pursuit of the enemy

There is no news from Gen Banks this morning The enemy made a feint of resistance at Badd a Mill, g very strong position beyond Fort Jackson, but on a demonstration of attack by our forces, they fled

ROME, N Y, 18.

The whole Mohawk valley is inundated.—The trains on the New York Central Railroad were detained last night, but came through today, although several miles of the track are under water.

ALBANY, 18th.

A bill for the enlargement of canals, to permit the passage of vessels, passed the Senate, 21, to 5.

WASHINGTON, 18th

The following was received at 6 50 this evening

Headquarters of the Potomac, Apl 18

An official report has been received at headquarters, giving a list of the killed and wounded in the engagement between the 2d Vermont regiment and the enemy on Wednesday, mention of which was made yesterday The information as far as received, puts the killed at 32, and the wounded at 98 Ten of the latter will probably prove fatal The conduct of the Vermont troops on the occasion is spoken of in the highest terms, earning for the Green Mountain boys, laurels only to be won by the brave.

They drove a superior number of the enemy from their fortified positions, but were forced to relinquish it on the rebels being reinforced

The loss of the enemy in this engagement must have been heavy, as the well-directed fire of our artillery mowed them by scores

Yesterday afternoon, while Lieut O B Wagner of the Topographicrl Engineers in company with a squad of men was making a survey of the enemy's works, a shell struuck the table on which lay the papers, and instantly exploding, the left arm of the Lieut was shattered, and was afterwards amputated He is comfortable this morning and no fears are entertained as to his recovery

Jas Luther Jr., of Bristol, belonging to the 2d Rhode Island Segment, was probably fatally injured

Daniel Painter of Berdan s Sharp Shooters, mentioned yesterday, is dead,

About one o'clock this morning, the enemy in force attempted to cross the dam in front of our lines, evidently with the view of capturing a battery of our artillery which had given them considerable trouble during the last few days—On the rebels making their appearance they were opened upon by a well directed fire from a body of infantry, acting as a reserve to the pickets, forcing them to beat a retreat leaving their dead and wounded on the dam, which they succeeded in recovering before day light Both parties then opened with artillery, which has continued at intervals up to the present time None of our men were killed

APACHE GLEN, New Mexico,
Between Santa Fe and Fort Union,
March 30th

The Correspondence of the Missouri Republican contains the following

Since I wrote you Colonel Slough's column 1300 strong, advanced to Hogan's Ranche, 29 miles north of Santa Fe, where they encountered the enemy, whose strength was not known and immediately engaged them

Major Crittenden with the 1st Colorado volunteers, and two companies of United States infantry under Capt Lewis, were sent across the river to fall upon their rear Col Slough according to the programme, gave way gradually, which left the supply train of the rebels unsupported, which Major Crittenden and Capt Lewis easily captured, together with about 60 loaded wagons that were burned, and 10 prisoners also one two-pound howitzer which was captured from the United States at Fort Craig Colonel Slough s command then felt back to a strong position

Our trophies are 100 prisoners, privates and officers 60 loaded waguns burned, and one piece of artillery

From 100 to 200 rebels were killed and wounded, including one major and two captains Our loss is about eighteen or twenty killed including Lieut Baker of the Colorado volunteers and 30 or 40 wounded

It is supposed that the rebel General Sibley will advance upon Colonel Slough's command with his entire force, from 2000 to 3000 strong and that Colonel Slough will fall back upon the trenches at Depot Union

At last accounts Colonel Canby had not left Fort Craig

P S—March 31st Ninety five prisoners, with eleven officers of the rebel army, have just passed under escort, and will arrive at Fort Union in the morning

Colonel Slough s en ire command has fallen back to Bencal Springs, forty four miles from Fort Union, and within supporting distance

CHICAGO 18

The Evening Journal says We learn from private sources this morning that Fort Wright was attacked by Com Foote s flotilla on Monday, and has been captured We presume our information is correct, as it comes from one at Cairo who knows about everything that is going on

FORSYTH Mo, April 13th

The correspondent of the Missouri Democrat says —"Judge Murphy and Dr Johnson of Huntsville, Ark, arrived at Gen Curtis s headquarters last night, having been obliged to fly from their homes since the battle of Ips Ridge by threats made against them by a band of Texas Rangers stationed at Ozark

Judge Murphy was the only member of the Arkansas Seceding Convention whose vote was cast against the secession of the State

At Huntsville the Union men are depressed with gloom, not being aware of the recent victories

No mails have been received since Price's flight from Springfield It was proclaimed by the rebels that Price had re-taken Springfield and surrounded Curtis—that Price and his Indians had whipped Gen Hunter—that the Federals were repulsed with great loss at Island No 10, and that they were flying back along the whole line, and that Jeff Davis was about to head 400,000 troops to invade Maryland and Northern States These assertions were generally believed and no one had the hardihood to dispute these falsehoods

The Judge gives much information relating to Arkansas matters Gov Reector is bitter and wolfish He called an extra session of the Legislature, but it was three weeks before a quorum was present In his message he recommends an act be passed punishing with heavy fines any person who shall even express doubts of the success of the confederate arms, and that a second offense be declared felony

An act was passed imposing a tax of thirty dollars per bale upon cotton, thus favoring the production of grain to the discouragement of cotton raising

Colonel Wright, of the 6th Missouri cavalry, returned to Cassville on the evening of the 9th, having made a successful expedition with four companies of his command through the southwest corner of the State All jayhawking bands in that locality were dispersed Several skirmishes took place, which resulted in the death of several prominent rebels One hundred and twenty-five prisoners were captured, all of whom, except the leaders and twenty-five untractable ones, were released on taking the oath of allegiance A number of horses were captured, together with 122 head of cattle, 327 bushels of wheat, and 4500 pounds of bacon

All rebel gangs not captured were driven by Col Wright down to Stand-Watty, a point on the line of the Indian Territory, 25 miles below Neosho

It is reported that a body of rebels, 600 strong are encamped between Cowskin and Buffalo Creek, and that Albert Pike is at the head of 1500 Indians

NEW YORK, 18th

The correspondent of the Evening Post states that the gunboats Pembina and Ellen are stationed at Jacksonville, Florida, to protect the Unionists there Most of the citizens applied for a passage to get away from the place, fearing the inroads of the robbers and murderers from the so called rebel regulators.

SPRINGFIELD, Mass, 18th

At nine o'clock this morning the Connecticut river was eighteen feet above low water, and rapidly rising This is within four feet four inches of the great flood of May 1st, 1854. Such a rise of log drags without rain is unprecedented.

NEW YORK, 18.

The Posts special Washington despatch states that the Committee on the Norfolk Navy Yard investigation ascertained, among other things, that the rebels had only 500 troops at Norfolk when the Navy Yard was destroyed, while our forces numbered more than 1000 The evidence taken by the Committee shows that the Yard might easily have been saved, and the enemy deprived of 2000 pieces of artillery and the hull of the Merrimac.

WASHINGTON, 18th

The condition of the Treasury now enables the Secretary to direct the payment in cash of all claims of dates prior to Nov 1, 1861, including claims settled by the St Louis commission, and it is expected that the November claims will also be paid in full within a few days All other claims, without regard to date, will be paid on presentation, if desired, as heretofore—80 per cent. in certificates, and 20 per cent in cash

The prospect of the passage of a Pacific rail road bill during the present session of Congress is not promising

ST JOSEPH, Mo, 18.

A most violent hurricane passed in a southeasterly direction from this place tonight. The Pacific Railroad freight-house was demolished, injuring several persons The steamer Majors of the Hannibal and St Joseph Railroad Line was torn from her moorings and carried down the river several miles, but finally made a landing being badly damaged Her passengers were all saved The steamer Decotah of the same line was sunk and is a total loss To what extent damage is done in other sections below, is not known, as the telegraph line is down between here and Atchison

The effect of the success of Burnside and Foote is very perceptible in all quarters The contrabands, as may well be supposed, are not indifferent. One of them quietly inquired, recently as follows

"Can you tell why it is that Master Burnside found that it took five Northerners to equal one Southerner?"

"No, replied we, "how is it?"

"Why, sir, it takes four Northerners to catch one Southerner—he run so fast—and then it takes the other Northerner to whip him!"

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America, in Congress assembled,

That no citizen or citizens of the United States or foreigner coming into or residing within the same, shall, for himself or for any other person whatsoever, either as master, owner, factor, or otherwise, build, equip, load, or otherwise prepare any ship or vessel, or any steamship or steam vessel, registered, enrolled or licensed, in the United States, or any port within the same, for the purpose of procuring from China, or from any port or place therein, or from any other port or place the inhabitants or subjects of China, known as "coolies," to be transported to any foreign country port or place whatever, to be disposed of, or sold, or transferred, for any term of years or for any time whatever, as servants or apprentices, or to be held to service or labor. And if any ship or vessel, steamship, or steam vessel, belonging in whole or in part to citizens of the United States, and registered, enrolled, or otherwise licensed as aforesaid, shall be employed for the said purposes, or in the "coolie trade" so called, or shall be caused to procure or carry from China or elsewhere, as aforesaid, any subjects of the Government of China for the purpose of transporting or disposing of them as aforesaid, every such ship or vessel, steamship or steam-vessel, her tackle, apparel, furniture, and other appurtenances, shall be forfeited to the United States, and shall be liable to be seized prosecuted, and condemned in any of the circuit courts or district courts of the United States for the district where the said ship or vessel, steamship or steam-vessel may be found, seized, or carried.

Sec. 2. And be it further enacted, That every person who shall so build, fit out, equip, load, or otherwise prepare, or who shall send to sea, or navigate, as owner, master, factor, agent, or otherwise, any ship or vessel, steamship or steam-vessel, belonging in whole or in part to citizens of the United States, or registered, enrolled, or licensed within the same, or at any port thereof, knowing or intending that the same shall be employed in that trade, or business aforesaid, contrary to the true intent and meaning of this act, or in any wise aiding or abetting therein, shall be severally liable to be indicted therefor, and, on conviction thereof, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding two thousand dollars and be imprisoned not exceeding one year.

Sec. 3. And be it further enacted, That if any citizen or citizens of the United States shall, contrary to the true intent and meaning of this act, take on board of any vessel, or receive or transport any such persons as are above described in this act, for the purpose of disposing of them as aforesaid, he or they shall be liable to be indicted therefor, and, on conviction thereof, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding two thousand dollars and be imprisoned not exceeding one year

Sec. 4. And be it further enacted, That nothing in this act hereinbefore contained shall be deemed or construed to apply to or affect any free and voluntary emigration of any Chinese subject, or to any vessel carrying such person as passenger on board the same; Provided, however, That a permit or certificate shall be prepared and signed by the consul or consular agent of the United States residing at the port from which such vessel may take her departure, containing the name of such person, and setting forth the fact of his voluntary emigration from such port or place which certificate shall be given to the master of such vessel, but the same shall not be given until such consul or consular agent shall be first personally satisfied by evidence produced of the truth of the facts therein contained.

Sec. 5. And be it further enacted, That all the provisions of the act of Congress approved February twenty-second, eighteen hundred and forty-seven, entitled "An act to regulate the carriage of passengers in merchant vessels," and all the provisions of the act of Congress, approved March third, eighteen hundred and forty-nine, entitled "An act to extend the provisions of all laws now in force relating to the carriage of passengers in merchant vessels and the regulation thereof," shall be extended and shall apply to all vessels owned in whole or in part by citizens of the United States, and registered, enrolled or licensed within the United States, propelled by wind or by steam, and to all masters thereof, carrying passengers or intending to carry passengers from any foreign port or place without the United States to any other foreign port or place without the United States; and that all penalties and forfeitures provided for in said act, shall apply to vessels and masters last aforesaid.

Sec. 6. And be it further enacted, That the President of the United States shall be and he is hereby authorized and empowered in such way and at such time as he shall judge proper to the end that the provisions of this act may be enforced according to the true intent and meaning thereof, to direct and order the vessels of the United States, and the masters and commanders thereof, to examine all vessels navigated or owned in whole or in part by citizens of the United States, and registered, enrolled or licensed under the laws of the United States, whatever they may be, whenever, in the judgment of such master or commanding officer thereof, reasonable cause shall exist to believe that such vessel has on board, in violation of the provisions of this act, any subjects of China known as "coolies," for the purpose of transportation; and upon sufficient proof that such vessel is employed in violation of the provisions of this act, to cause such vessel to be carried, with her officers and crew, into any port or district within the United States, and delivered to the marshal of such district, to be held and disposed of according to the provisions of this act.

Sec. 7. And be it further enacted, That this act shall take effect from and after six months from the day of its passage.

Approved, February 19, 1862.

Infallible Liniment!

Great External Remedy

For Rheumatism, Gout, Neuralgia, Lumbago, Stiff Neck and Joints, Sprains, Bruises, Cuts and Wounds, Piles, Headache, and all Rheumatic and Nervous Disorders,

FOR all of which it is a speedy and certain remedy, and never fails. This Liniment is prepared from the recipe of Dr Stephen Sweet, of Connecticut, the famous bone setter, and has been used in his practice for more than twenty years with the most astonishing success.

AS AN ALLEVIATOR OF PAIN it is unrivalled by any preparation before the public, of which the most skeptical may be convinced by a single trial.

This Liniment will cure rapidly and radically, RHEUMATIC DISORDERS of every kind, and in thousands of cases where it has been used, it has never been known to fail.

For NEURALGIA, it will afford immediate relief in every case, however distressing.

It will relieve the worst cases of HEADACHE in three minutes, and is warranted to do it.

TOOTHACHE also will it cure instantly.

For NERVOUS DEBILITY and GENERAL LASSITUDE arising from imprudence or excess, this Liniment is a most happy and unfailing remedy.—Acting directly upon the nervous tissues, it strengthens and revivifies the system, and restores it to elasticity and vigor.

FOR PILES—As an external remedy, we claim that it is the best known, and we challenge the world to produce an equal. Every victim of this distressing complaint should give it a trial, for it will not fail to afford immediate relief, and in a majority of cases will effect a radical cure.

QUINSY AND SORE THROAT are sometimes extremely malignant and dangerous, but a timely application of this Liniment will never fail to cure.

SPRAINS are sometimes very obstinate, and enlargement of the joints is liable to occur if neglected. The worst case may be conquered by this Liniment in two or three days.

BRUISES, CUTS, WOUNDS, SORES, ULCERS, BURNS AND SCALDS, yield readily to the wonderful healing properties of DR. SWEET'S INFALLIBLE LINIMENT, when used according to directions. Also, CHILBLAINS, FROSTED FEET, and INSECT BITES AND STINGS.

Every Horse Owner

should have this remedy at hand, for its timely use at the first appearance of Lameness will effectually prevent those formidable diseases, to which all horses are liable, and which render so many otherwise valuable horses nearly worthless.

Over four hundred voluntary testimonials to the wonderful curative powers of this Liniment have been received within the last two years, and many of them from persons in the highest ranks of life.

To avoid imposition, observe the signature and likeness of Dr Stephen Sweet on every label, and also "Stephen Sweet's Infallible Liniment" blown in the glass of each bottle, without which none are genuine.

3. The North British Review, (Free Church.)

4. The Westminster Review, (Liberal.)

5. Blackwood's Edinburgh Magazine, (Tory.)

The present critical state of European affairs will render these publications unusually interesting during the forthcoming year. They will occupy a middle ground between the hastily written news-items, crude speculations and flying rumors of the daily Journal, and the ponderous Tome of the future historian, written after the living interest and excitement of the great political interests of the time shall have passed away. It is to these periodicals that readers must look for the only really intelligible and reliable history of current events and as such, in addition to their well established literary, scientific and theological character, we urge them upon the consideration of the reading public.

The receipt of Advance Sheets from the British publishers gives additional value to these Reprints, inasmuch as they can now be placed in the hands of subscribers about as soon as the original editions.

AND

BLOOD RENOVATOR,

Is precisely what its name indicates, for while pleasant to the taste it is revivifying, exhilarating and strengthening to the vital powers.—It also revivifies, reinstates and renews the blood in all its original purity, and thus restores and renders the system invulnerable to attacks of disease. It is the only preparation ever offered to the world in a popular form so as to be within the reach of all. So chemically and skillfully combined as to be the most powerful tonic, and yet so perfectly adapted as to act in perfect accordance with the laws of nature, and hence soothe the weakest stomach and tone up the digestive organs and allay all nervous and other irritation. It is also perfectly exhilarating in its effects, and yet it is never followed by lassitude or depression of spirits. It is composed entirely of vegetables and those combined having powerful tonic and soothing properties, and consequently can never injure. Such a remedy has long been felt to be a desideratum in the medical world, both by the thoroughly skilled in medical science and also by all who have suffered from debility; for it needs no medical skill or knowledge even to see that debility follows all attacks of disease, and lays the unguarded system open to the attacks of many of the most dangerous diseases to which poor humanity is constantly liable. Such for example as the following: Consumption, Bronchitis, Indigestion, Dyspepsia, loss of appetite, faintness, nervous irritability, neuralgia, palpitation of the heart, melancholy, hypochondria, night sweats, languor, giddiness, and all that class of cases so fearfully fatal if unattended to in time, called female weakness and irregularities. Also, liver derangements or torpidity, and liver complaints, diseases of the kidneys, scalding or incontinence of the urine, or any general derangement of the urinary organs, pain in the back, side and between the shoulders, predisposition to slight colds, hacking and continued cough, emaciation, difficulty of breathing, and indeed we might enumerate many more still, but we have space only to say, it will not only cure the debility following chills and fever, but prevent all attacks arising from Miasmatic influences, and cure the diseases at once, if already attacked. And as it acts directly and persistently upon the biliary system, arousing the liver to action, promoting in fact all the excretions and secretions of the system, it will infallibly prevent any deleterious consequences following upon change of climate and water, hence all travelers should have a bottle with them, and all should take a table spoonful at least before eating. As it prevents costiveness, strengthens the digestive organs, it should be in the hands of all persons of sedentary habits, students, ministers, literary men. And all ladies not accustomed to much out-door exercise should always use it. If they will, they will find an agreeable, pleasant, and efficient remedy against those ills which rob them of their beauty; for beauty cannot exist without health, and health cannot exist while the above irregularities continue. Then again the cordial is a perfect mother's relief. Taken a month or two before the final trial, she will pass the dreadful period with perfect ease and safety. There is no mistake about it, this cordial is all we claim for it. Mothers, try it! And to you we appeal to detect the illness or decline, not only of your daughters, before it be too late, but also your sons and husbands, for while the former, from false delicacy, often go down to a premature grave rather than let their condition be known in time, the latter are often so mixed up with the excitement of business that if it were not for you they too would travel in the same downward path, until too late to arrest their fatal fall. But the mother is always vigilant, and to you we confidently appeal, for we are sure your never failing affection will unerringly point you to Prof Wood's Restorative Cordial and Blood Renovator as the remedy which should be always on hand in time of need. O. J. WOOD, Proprietor, 444 Broadway, New York, and 114 Market Street, St. Louis, Mo., and sold by all good Druggists.

MR. W. A. BELL.

Gents:—Above please find statement of Mr. John G. Daly, a merchant of our city, in regard to HEIMSTREET'S INIMITABLE HAIR RESTORATIVE. This testimony is given after having used most of the preparations now before the public claiming to be Hair Restoratives, and must be considered conclusive as to the merits of the Inimitable. MESSRS. W. E. HAGAN & CO.

I hereby certify that my Hair having become gray and my head partially bald, I bought from Henry Reynolds, Druggist, one four oz. bottle of HEIMSTREET'S INIMITABLE HAIR RESTORATIVE. By its use my Hair was restored to its original color and thickness: it removed all dandruff, arrested its falling and gave it a rich, glossy appearance. Its effects were entirely different from any Hair Preparation I ever used before. I know of several ladies and gentlemen, my intimate friends, who all speak of the "Inimitable" as being the best and cheapest Hair Preparation in our market. I can fully recommend it, and will refer any one to Henry Reynolds, Druggist, for the truth of my statements. WILLIAM BOSBYSHALL, &

ST LOUIS, Mo., Aug. 2, 1860.

Messrs. W. E. HAGAN & Co., Troy, N. Y.—Gents: The happy results attending the use of Heimstreet's INIMITABLE (in every sense of the word,) Hair Restorative, seems to demand that I should give my testimony that other ladies might profit by it. I have never used a hair preparation that I liked so well. It has completely restored every hair that was grey to the color it was in girlhood, and has brought it out thick and healthy. I was induced to use the article by Mr. Reynolds, your Agent here. If this letter will be of service, you may publish it.

Very respectfully yours.

REBURATIONS of a Country Parson, second series—rec'd by D. BUGBEE & CO.

ILLUSTRATED

Best Mechanical Paper in the World.

SEVENTEENTH YEAR.

VOLUME VI—NEW SERIES.

A NEW VOLUME of this widely circulated paper commences on the first of January. It is published WEEKLY, and every number contains sixteen pages of useful information, and from five to ten original engravings of new inventions and discoveries all of which are prepared expressly for its columns.

To the Mechanic and Manufacturer

No person engaged in any of the mechanical or manufacturing pursuits should think of doing without the SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN. It costs but four cents per week, every number contains from six to ten engravings of new machines and inventions, which cannot be found in any other publication. It is an established rule of the publishers to insert none but original engravings and those of the first class in the art, drawn and engraved by experienced persons under their own supervision.

To the Inventor.

The SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN is indispensable to every inventor, as it not only contains illustrated descriptions of nearly all the best inventions as they come out, but each number contains an official list of the claims of all the Patents issued from the United States Patent Office during the week previous; thus giving a correct history of the progress of inventions in this country. We are also receiving, every week, the best scientific journals of Great Britain, France, and Germany; thus placing in our possession all that is transpiring in mechanical science and art in these old countries. We shall continue to transfer to our columns copious extracts from these journals of whatever we may deem of interest to our readers.

Chemists, Architects, Millwrights and Farmers.

The SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN will be found a most useful journal to them. All the new discoveries in the science of chemistry are given in its columns, and the interests of the architect and carpenter are not overlooked; all the new inventions and discoveries appertaining to these pursuits being published from week to week. Useful and practical information pertaining to the interests of millwrights and mill-owners will be found published in the SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN, which information they cannot possibly obtain from any other source. Subjects in which planters and farmers are interested will be found discussed in the SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN; most of the improvements in agricultural implements being illustrated in its columns.

For centuries this has been a matter [illegible] among scientific and medical men [illegible] experiments have been made and [illegible] penced upon the enquiry, it has [illegible] century among its other wonders [illegible] knowledge, to make this grand discovery [illegible]

Acknowledging that life is the gift [illegible] and that "in Him we live and move and have our being," we still venture the remark [illegible] planets move in their spheres and all [illegible] is governed by certain absolute laws [illegible] is traceable to a fixed cause, which [illegible] they, and death, the certain effect [illegible]

The air we breathe, we know [illegible] large proportion of oxygen.

Oxygen brought in contact with a metal [illegible] or emits electricity.

Electricity brought in contact with [illegible] ber, causes it to contract.

These facts being indisputable, we [illegible] solution as to the motor of the [illegible] heart. The oxygen in the air we [illegible] in contact with the iron corpuscles [illegible] mits electricity, which coming [illegible] heart, causes it to contract and [illegible] which expels the blood and sends it [illegible] the remotest arteries. What then [illegible] of Consumption, Dropsy, Palsy, Paralysis, St. Vitus' Dance, Dyspepsia, Epilepsy, Fever and Ague, &c., a deficiency of the [illegible] containing the iron, sulphur and [illegible] causes a deficiency of electricity [illegible] an abnormal circulation. Old age causes a deficiency of corpuscles and while we do not pretend to say that we have discovered the "elixir vitae," we do say that life can be materially prolonged by the use of the

Do not reject it, do not [illegible] only hope. The "Blood Food" is an unfailing remedy; give it a trial.
